

Dixie State University Police Offer Fingerprinting For People Covered By DACA

KNPR

June 17, 2019

<https://knpr.org/headline/2019-06/dixie-state-university-police-offer-fingerprinting-people-covered-daca>

By KNPR News Staff

Police at Dixie State University are offering people in the Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals program fingerprinting services, a required step to secure driving privileges in Utah.

The St. George campus decided to offer the service after the American Civil Liberties Union of Utah reached out to them.

The organization says the service should help hundreds of DACA recipients and immigrants living in southern Utah.